

North Pine Dam Improvement Project

Community Reference Group

Selection Criteria

The Community Reference Group (CRG) for the North Pine Dam Improvement Project should consist of members who can collectively add value through their wide variety of experiences, backgrounds and skills including:

- Experience and knowledge about water supply and its purpose and place within community.
- A broad cross section of demographics such as age, gender and socio-economic background.
- A range of interests and roles such as education, employment, recreational pursuits, community participation, volunteer involvement and domestic responsibilities.

The North Pine Dam Improvement Project CRG will comprise of up to 10 members representing the following key interest groups:

- Environmental interest
- Catchment
- Fish management
- Education
- Recreation
- Community
- Business community

The North Pine Dam Improvement Project CRG members will meet the following selection criteria:

- Demonstrated intention and ability to proactively represent community/group interests.
- Prepared, confident and able to update their community on meeting actions and outcomes from the North Pine Dam Improvement Project CRG.
- Capacity to volunteer time to represent community/group interests.
- Readiness to work cooperatively and constructively in an advisory capacity with the North Pine Dam Improvement Project team and other Seqwater representatives, and in accordance with the North Pine Dam Improvement Project Terms of Reference (ToR).

Knowledge and experience – essential

- Experience and understanding of local context (City of Moreton Bay) considerations including knowledge on water supply, community amenity and recreational facilities, the natural environment, social values and impacts, history and cultural heritage, and business and economic impacts.
- Experience and knowledge about Lake Samsonvale and its purpose and place within community.
- Demonstrated ability to work cooperatively as part of a team.

Knowledge and experience – desirable

- Appreciation and understanding of issues related to the use and ongoing management of Lake Samsonvale, North Pine Dam and associated infrastructure.